Dear Gizzley-

Goodness gracious
but we're almost through.
It so sad. ha! It really is sad that you will be leaving. Boo, too. sniff!
I hope you will come back and visit Webster some time.

Good luck,
Blake Reddo

Dear Harry,

Its been fun knowing you this year and I wish you lots of luck, success, and happiness in the future.

Dear Sue,
It's sure

been loads of fun suffering through Howard's class with you. Also those Senior Prom decorations were loads of fun too.
House loads of luck next year at college.

Love ya,

Dear Sue,

This has been a wonderful year with a few exceptions - (Howard) I hope you have a wonderful summer and a good time at college and I'm sure you will

loads of luck
Judy B.

My Dearest Harry
This is going to be hard to write because its going to be so hard to say goodbye to such a swell
gal. Now isn't that nice and sticky?
Seriously ole girl
I am going to miss that shiny face of yours everyday.
Best of luck and have a real swell summer.

Dear Sue -
First of all - thanks for calling me every Tues.
night - It really got riden threesome after the first 3 months - you sure have done a lot for the school.
I know you'll love Washington - I'll bet you're very sad to be leaving - but be sure & come back to see us - Gola

Dear Sue,
It seems like our lives are coming to an end. But we're just coming to the crossroads
of our lives.
I'm sure to maintain

Dear Sue,

Dad, I'm going to cry all over your book. I really don't know what I'm going to do with myself after you're gone. Who could ever ask for a better friend than you - you've given me confidence, encouragement, fun, laughs, and understanding; all that you could ask of a friend. Gosh, think of all the fun times we've had - being fruit together. Well, I've started you on the road to sin - smoking, drinking, cussing - but think how dull life would have been without it. Remember when you hadn't had a date with a guy from Webster - quite a few have come and gone since then. I'll keep my eye on Nemo & my fingers crossed that he writes. I'm really glad you've got - ten some of the honors you deserved this year, you were darling in Coronation & I'm proud that you are one of my best friends. Actually, I'm closer to you than anyone I know & I hope it always stays that way. Seattle will love you and your family Sue, because they're aren't a nicer bunch of goons around. Please come back and stay with me for a long while next year. Maybe someday we'll rent an apartment & be "party dolls" together - wow! You're such a wonderful girl that I don't need to wish you success, the world is begging for people like you. & lash those eyes, give ~~them~~ em the old one-two - and knock that town on its ear. Love & suck forever,

Cindy Chambers.

Dear Sue,

Our suffering is nearly over. But, never fear, I'll call you from Mass.
once a week. It is only $3.69 after rather love of our fellow men, we engrave on those tablets some- summer or year thing that will brighten all eternity." like we have managed to have in the near past. — Daniel Webster

you know you're always wel- come and I hope you'll come back and visit all the time.

But if not, pick up your pen and let me know about your gay of old times at U. of W. But just think of the lovely times I'll be having at Washout. Did you know the Betas are building a new landing field? no kidding. Sure. I'm sorry you're leaving. and please do write.

Dear Sue, (better known as Harry) well finally the time has come when we will be leaving dear old Webster. It hardly seems possible that the time has gone by so quickly.

These are the cornerstones of our today on which our tomorrows are destined to be built.

Sometimes I wonder what I would have done if it didn't. I'm so glad I got to know you so well this year. It's been fun going to stage, parties etc. together. You're real a great gal and loads of fun to be with. We sure are going to miss you when you move to Washington next year. Will have to do a lot before you move. I won't say bye now, cause I

Dear Sue,

Look it's been so much fun this year! I'm so glad we've been together more, in gym & sometimes at stag & stuff. I sure wish you weren't moving away from us, at I'm sure many are, but I wish you much happiness in your new home. It was so much fun working on "We are 4 little dummies" with you. Nobody can scream & yell like we can! You're really fun to be with, sure, always keep your sense of fun. Good luck always!

Dedication

Our lifetime has been one of beligerence and hostility, of perfidy and duplicity, of constant struggle between opposed ideologies and nationalities and between man and his neighbor. We are determined that this shall not be in the lifetime of our children, and we ever strive to establish the light that will drive off this enshrouding cloud.

We place as our light in the darkness not a universal feeling of tolerance, for tolerance in its very essence recognizes a stratification of peoples, but rather a genuine, sincere, and devoted Brotherhood of the one people which God hath ordained as His disciples on His earth. This Brotherhood shall be all-encompassing; and together, hand in hand, as if with one voice the whole earth shall sing His praise.

With faith in its realization and an indomitable determination that, by all we are, it shall come to pass, we dedicate The ECHO of 1957 to the Brotherhood which alone can give us peace.

boy what fun. Well, Sue, I sure wish you weren't leaving us because I'm really going to miss you. You are really a sweet girl with a darling personality and I know you'll be a success in whatever you do. Now that I'm in the middle I can say that I agree with you 100% on everything you said about the various Echo maids. Some of them are such snobs & don't deserve I think. Sue I think it's great that you were an Echo maid and class secretary — you've really worked hard and deserved those honors (a lot more than some people I know). I hope you like Washington and be sure to drop me a line sometime. floods may come, the winds may blow and beat. Good luck always. Love, Peggy

In Memoriam

DR. LEONARD A. STEGER

Dr. Leonard A. Steger is in large measure responsible for the present high standing of the Webster Groves school system. His courage and his strong convictions won for him the true respect of all who knew him and especially the young people of Webster for whom he did so much. All of us feel keenly the loss of his leadership; yet we can but be thankful for the benefit we draw from the many accomplishments he left as his own memorial. We cannot commemorate his life nearly as well as Dr. Steger himself did by living it in the service of others.

WILLIAM FINDLEY GUFFEY

President of the Student Body

DONALD ROBERT OLIVER

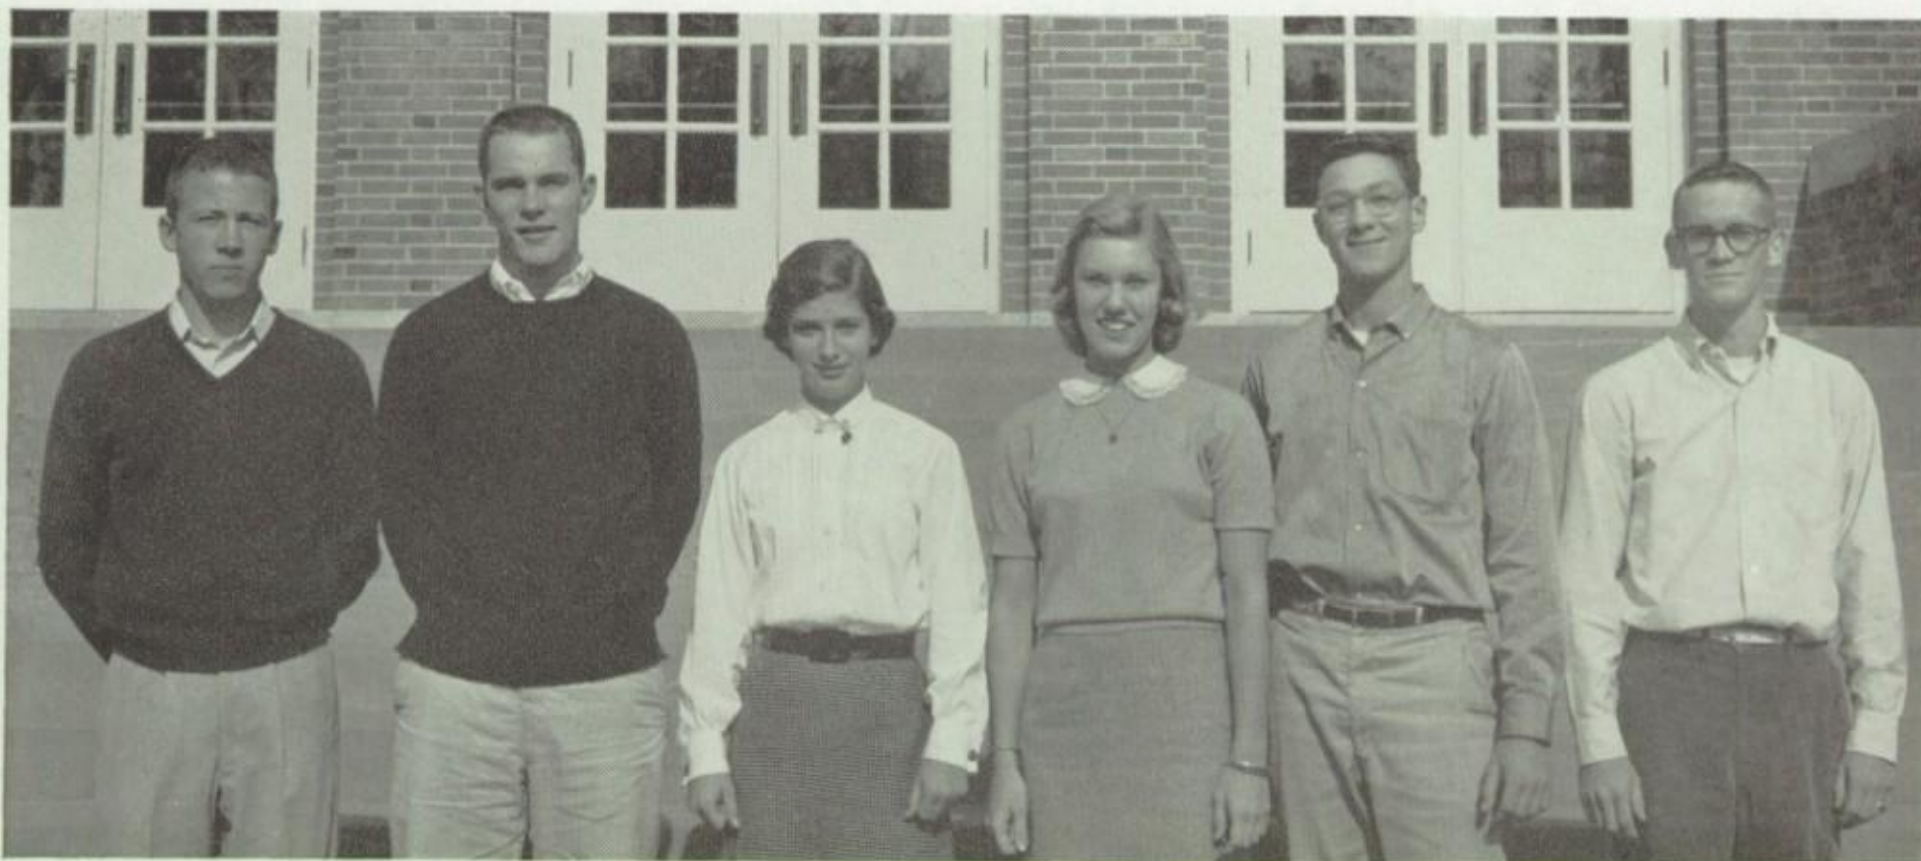

President of the Senior School

NORMAN SCHWESIG

President of the Junior School

Oliver, Wagner, Schilling, Ogle, Straub, Guffey

In 1948, the Student Guidance Council was organized to function as the judicial branch of Webster's student government. Very few other St. Louis area schools had this type of council and Webster had good reason to be proud of the work it did.

The purpose of the council was to help students who had broken school rules to realize their mistakes. The names of the offending students were submitted to the council by the student guides. No punishment was inflicted, but friendly discussion and guidance helped the student become a better citizen and the school a better place to attend. Headed by Fin Guffey and Don Oliver, the council was composed of seven representatives: three seniors, one junior, and one sophomore. Each of these representatives, was elected by his respective grade.

Senior Student Council

The organizer of successful projects, the terrifically important force behind numerous school activities, the main promoter of school spirit, and the legislative and executive branches of Webster's student government for 1956-57, was the Senior Student Council.

The council lived up to its main purpose of promoting the general welfare of the Webster students, and was composed of forty-two members, elected respectively from their grades. Under the leadership of Fin Guffey, Student Body President, and Don Oliver, Senior School President, and under the sponsorship of Mr. Newton Settle, the council had meetings on alternate days, 5th hour. It discussed problems of the school, and planned the work of its various committees. The council also took part in an assembly of the St. Louis County high school governments, where various common problems were discussed. This county council met monthly.

Many traditional school events found their origin in the Student Council. Among the numerous activities it sponsored throughout the year were Hello Day, Football Week, Basketball—Wrestling Week, Color Day, Pep Rally, The Dance Carnival, and Spring Sports Day.

Three parties were given by the council during the year; the Faculty Tea, the New Student Party in the fall, and the Alum Party held after the Kirkwood-Webster basketball game in December. The annual magazine campaign was also a student council responsibility, and was again successful.

In the line of service to the school, the council sponsored the Cheerleaders, the Activity Ticket, the coke machine, the lost and found, and elections. The council also worked with the guidance council in the choosing of lunchroom and hall guides.

School assemblies also come under the jurisdiction of the student council, and each year the group itself puts on an explanatory program to keep the students informed on the council plans and projects.

Junior Student Council

President ..... Norman Schwesig
 Vice-President ..... Marion Jun
 Secretary ..... Karen Rodemich
 Sponsor ..... Miss Brantley

The Junior Student Council, composed of twenty-five regular representatives, met once a week after school. The council served more as a contact between the faculty and the Junior High students than as a lawmaking body. Members served as guides for new students in the seventh grade, and helped the faculty to plan the assembly programs for the Junior School. The council had several well defined responsibilities. It was each council member's duty to boost attendance at the "C" team games, to promote the magazine sales campaign, and to act as a representative of the junior school student body.

Anderson, Schwesig, Cook, Moore, Butler, Basch, McMann, Ycder, Robins, Sebastian.
Peukert, George, Christiansen, Harper, Reynolds, Werner, Brackman, Steed, Brigham, Murray.

The Junior School Monitors, sponsored by Miss Brantley, had authority in the cafeteria during the first lunch period. The boys maintained order by preventing students from running, from cutting in line, and from buying food for others. Another of their duties was to see that the cafeteria was kept in good condition for the second and third lunch hours. The Monitors gained the respect of their fellow students by seeking fair play among all. Those students who had run for the office of Junior School President automatically were Monitors. The others who served in this capacity were chosen by Miss Brantley through recommendations of the faculty members who had had the boys in their classes, and through the suggestions of the Junior Student Council.

In Memoriam

WALLY GIBBS

Wally Gibbs was a friend to everyone he knew, and his friendship was cherished by virtually every student at Webster High. His smile and his cheery hello are gone now, but somehow the love and faith that were so predominant in Wally's character have lingered and will always remain with his friends. There is an emptiness in our lives; but we know that Wally sits at the empty desk in our classroom, that he has been with us each day at school, and that he will be with us wherever we may go.

In Memoriam

CYNTHIA GORDON

The fatal automobile accident which took Cynthia Gordon from our midst left sadness in the hearts of her many friends. Those who knew Cynthia well remember a cheerful, optimistic person, a loyal friend, and an outstanding student. Her classmates remember Cynthia for her cheerful smile and friendly greeting as they passed her in the halls.

Even though Cindy is no longer among us, there is consolation in knowing that she "has been called to a higher school, served by the best teachers, learning the best things, in the best possible manner."

The James T. Hixon Award

The Senior Student Council of 1955 established an award to recognize seniors for outstanding performance in the fields of leadership, scholarship, sportsmanship and service. The award is named in honor of Mr. James T. Hixon, who for thirty-six years served as principal of Webster High School. The life of the award is ten years. Each winner is presented with an engraved certificate, and his name is inscribed upon a trophy which is the permanent property of the high school.

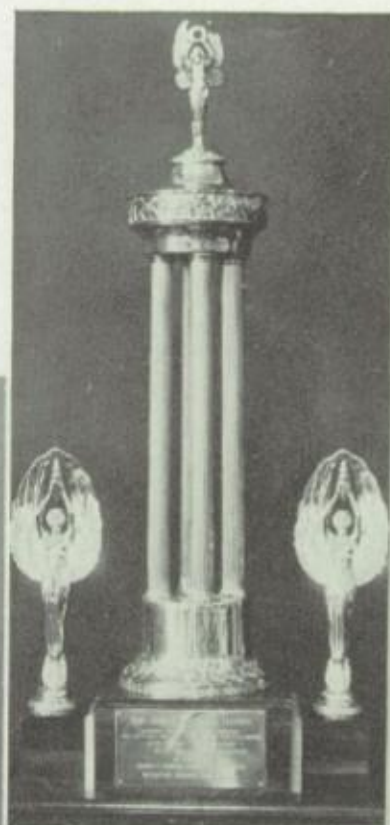

To be eligible for an award, a senior must present the general qualifications of having maintained a 2.0 or better scholastic average and of having attended Webster Groves High School during both his junior and senior years.

The winners of the Scholarship Award shall be the highest ranking boy and the highest ranking girl in the graduating class. One Sportsmanship Award shall be given to the boy who wins the Roberts Trophy. The other Sportsmanship Award shall be given to a girl chosen in the following manner; senior girls who have accumulated at least one thousand points shall nominate five of their number; a faculty committee shall choose as winner one girl from this list of candidates. In the fields of Leadership and Service, the Senior Class shall nominate five boys and five girls on the basis of their qualifications in the respective fields; a faculty committee shall choose as winners one boy and one girl from each list of nominees.

The Juniors elected students to be on the class cabinet to supervise their projects during the year. Members of the cabinet are: Julia Bodman, Dave Dysert, Chick Finch, Karen Frederiksen, Bob Lottmann, Susan Newberg, Lynn Oder, Alice Ogle, Bill Pollock, Jane Rogers, Ronnie Stein, and the President and Vice-President of the class. Each cabinet member headed a committee and juniors not on the cabinet were given a chance to volunteer for committees. The committee chairmen then chose several volunteers as assistants.

projects not only for fun, but also for making the money that will be needed next year. In May, when the Seniors found themselves too busy to carry on their candy sales, the Juniors took over, and while making money, also gained experience for one of the jobs they will have next year.

The class began the year's projects at one of the first football games by selling helium-filled balloons which the spectators released after the first touchdown. This not only helped the Juniors financially, but also added spirit to the game and made an impressive sight. A booth at the Dance Carnival and a basketball game between the Junior and Senior boys provided another way of making money and also having fun.

One of the biggest affairs of every Junior year is the Junior Prom. This year it was held on March 9, in the Junior gyms. The prom committee, which was headed by Lynn Oder and Bruce Knowles, was divided into smaller committees headed by students who were not on the cabinet. Some of the subcommittees were: publicity, decorations, sale of tickets, and clean-up. The Juniors nominated six girls as candidates for Junior Queen. They were: Lynn Dominquez, Susan Geodecke, Jane Rogers, Susan Woods and Marge Yates. From these girls the students voted for one and Dave Harlen, class president, crowned Susan Geodecke the Junior Queen for 1957.

The Juniors felt that they were officially on the way to being Seniors when they received their class rings in May. The selecting and ordering of the rings, which was done in January, took much organization on the part of the students. The year's activities were brought to a close by a spring get together which was planned by several students from the class and headed by a cabinet member.

As the sophomores began their year, they found that many new activities were opened to them. Some of these were: G.A.A., Latin Club, French Club, Beginning Choir, Dramatics Club, and varsity and class team sports. One of the biggest steps the sophomores took when they entered the senior school was the opportunity to elect their own representatives to the Senior Student Council and the Senior Guidance Council. These privileges gave the sophomores a better understanding of how student government operates.

During the year each student had a conference with his counselor, Miss McClain, to plan the subjects he will take in his junior and sen-of their homerooms. Members of the cabinet were: Steve Balthaser, Bob Brown, Pat Edele, Phyllis Grothaus, Ken Heineman, Betty Herbig, Judy Hofer, Phil Mumma, Bob Nussbaumer, Dusty Rhodes, Pete Shaw, Judy St. Pierre, and Bill Taylor. The president and vice-president of the grade presided over the cabinet meetings held several times a month.

The biggest project the class undertook was a dance held in April in the cafeteria. Cabinet members headed the committees which included refreshments, publicity, and band. Besides those usual dance committees, and "added features" committee was organized to develop novel ideas that would make the sophomore dance "different." Members of the class, not on the cabinet, had an opportunity to volunteer for work on these committees. To promote student interest and to find an appropriate theme, a free ticket was given to the student who suggested the best title for the dance.

Being normal high school students, the sophomores put stress not only on academic activities but also on sports. The "B" football team showed its ability by finishing first in the Suburban League. The sophomores were also proud of their basketball team, which not only compiled a fabulous record but also displayed sportsmanship on the court.

The class of 1960 was supervised and governed by a class cabinet made up of home-room presidents and was under the guidance of Miss Lilly Epps. The cabinet, composed of Jerry Tieman, Jack Werner, Leni Taggart, Bill Peukert, Phil Page, Alan George, and Jack Anderson, laid the basic plans for the class activities, and the boys presided at cabinet and class meetings and assemblies on a rotating basis. Leadership and experience were the key notes of the cabinet's training.

During the year, the Freshmen yelled with their pep squad, played on intramural teams, waltzed and tangoed at Sutters, and attended numerous meetings of the Junior Red Cross, Junior Student Council, and the Junior Library Club. Also on their calendar were conferences with their counselor, a gala evening at their spring "fun nite" party, and many hours of study.

With the shared responsibility of the ninth grade teachers, and the interest of the parents, the class should be a success in years to come.

Class of 1961

The eighth grade, feeling like old-timers when they entered Webster last fall, quickly began the job of organizing their class. With Mr. Robert Smith as their counselor, the class of 1961 elected a representative and an alternate from each homeroom to form a cabinet of sixteen. At its after school meetings with Mr. Smith, the cabinet planned for the class activities such as the Echo picture and their spring dance.

One of the unusual features of the class was that the students were able to join newly organized Tri-Hi-Y groups. Volunteer students from the Junior and Senior classes helped the clubs by sponsoring and organizing them.

The boys of the eighth grade participated in intramural sports on Tuesday afternoons, and the girls had their sports program also.

The eighth grade promises many good things in the years to come.

Enrolling in Webster High in the fall of 1956, the seventh graders entered into a new world of strange faces, endless halls, innumerable excuses and tardy rules, uncooperative lockers, a crowded cafeteria, different teachers each hour, unlimited clubs and activities, and of course, classes in subjects all quite new to them. However, with the aid of their capable sponsor, Miss Inez Howard, and the election of home room presidents, the class soon became a united body and proceeded to carry on their part in the vast program of Webster High.

The elected presidents of each homeroom were: Jack Vrowley, Pat Durham, Bruce Hilby, Jean Spencer, Mike Huston, Bill McClaren, Jack Combs, Roger Foster, and Thomas Zarumski.

A newly introduced beginning Spanish and French program had its second year, for those students recommended by their grade school teachers. Dramatics, speech, crafts, and orchestra were also popular subjects with the seventh grade.

Dear Sue,

The end of our Senior year, I really can't believe it. It's been great, especially those nights with the girls. I'll never forget as long as I live the good time we all had Hay Skaker then the Show. I can't even remember all the funny

Experience

Individuality springs forth from the seed of jokes and ~~and~~ cracks but I do remember that experience to give my life a purpose in itself. I've never laughed so hard. ~~we~~ we are going

For if I were but as my neighbor, I could neither out (the girls) before you leave. I sure hate lead nor be led, neither love nor be loved. To think about you leaving, it hardly seems neither inspire nor be inspired. Therefore must I fashion from my experience a unique being, and through this experience must I come to know that only with my brother may I live, and visit all the Websterites. I'd give the world to be moving where you are. Although I've never been West I've heard, and seen pictures and it's really beautiful. I know you'll have a great time and meet some fabulous people. Do have a good time but don't forget us back here.

Be good and don't change yourself. Lots of luck, Sue and have fun. It has really been great knowing you and I truly mean it. That Ken Bell didn't know what he was doing when he let you go... no joke - but I ~~think~~ "cur" I kind of like him.

Thanks

Love,

Sally Burgess - so you'll remember in 524

The Echo

Every afternoon in room 203 preparations were made for the 1956-57 Echo. The staff for the yearbook was chosen late in the spring of 1956 and enthusiastically began its work early in September.

The production of the annual was divided into several departments, each supervised by the editor. The advertising department sold their "ads" to businessmen in the local area. Their task was begun at the first of the year with every member of the staff participating. It was the duty of the literary staff to write the articles for each class and each activity featured in The Echo. The business manager controlled the finances, and the photographers took the informal pictures. The circulation department managed all sales during the year and the distribution at the close of the school. Special credit is due the hard-working typists who assisted the writers and the circulation department.

To help finance this edition, the staff operated the book store in the morning, sold candy and Turkey Day buttons, and sponsored the bowling pin booth at the Dance Carnival. Exceeding last year's sales by a wide margin, the advertising department contributed its share.

The Coronation of the Echo Queen and the Coronation Ball highlighted the social calendar for the staff. The Coronation Court, consisting of eighteen girls and six special maids, was chosen by the Senior Class. The Echo Queen was then selected by the sophomore, junior, and senior grades. The members of the staff enjoyed a Christmas party in December and a banquet held in May at which the first copies of the 1957 Echoes were distributed.

The Webster Echo

As in past years, the Webster Echo has brought well-rounded and complete news coverage to the students at Webster High. Many new ideas were presented to the subscribers in columns that were originated this year. They were: "Lazbo's Lookout," "The Midnight Oil," and "S. M. W."

The paper met expenses through the activity ticket fund, the magazine sales campaign, and the sale of programs at the Turkey Day game. Another source of income was the Paper Doll Prom, which was, as always, a big success.

Although there is a lot of work involved, the staff will long remember their experience in publishing a school newspaper.

Journalism

In order to be in the Journalism Class, a student had to try out by writing several articles for Mrs. Lanagan, the sponsor of the Webster Echo.

The class met on alternate days in Room 311 and was kept busy learning how to publish a good newspaper. After approximately six weeks of training the students were given assignments of writing articles for the paper.

The class also enjoyed several social activities. Among these were the Christmas party given for the alums, and the annual banquet held in the spring at which the new editors were announced.

Quill and Scroll is a national honorary society which recognizes those students who have done outstanding work in some phase of high school journalism. Members are selected from The Echo and The Webster Echo staffs.

Requirements for membership are: the student must be in the upper third of his class; he must be recommended by a supervisor of journalism in high school; and he must be approved worthy of membership by a national officer.

The chapter of the national society at Webster was chartered in 1927 and named after Joseph Pulitzer, the founder of the St. Louis Post Dispatch. Becoming a member of Quill and Scroll has always been regarded as one of the highest honors awarded to Webster journalists.

Once again the National Forensic League had a busy year. The members participated in debate, oratorical declamation, and humorous, radio, dramatic, and extemporaneous speaking.

Heading the list of activities was the annual "Junior Town Meeting of the Air," which was heard over KXOK. The members had another chance to speak in front of a large audience in the Christmas program held at the Webster Groves Public Library. The debate team visited many of the St. Louis and St. Louis County high schools to participate in contests, and also entered several tournaments held at St. Louis and Washington Universities, bringing several first-place cups to Webster.

The club ended a very successful year by holding its annual spring picnic, at which next year's officers were elected.

Dramatics Clubs

President ..... Bud Welz
 Vice-President ..... Bev Coyne
 Sponsor ..... Mr. Gilmore

The Dramatics Club composed of students from the ninth through twelfth grades, presented one three-act play, "Sight Unseen," and several one act plays. They also produced and directed plays given by the seventh and eighth graders.

Since the club is based on the hours system, a student must have worked on productions for a certain amount of time to earn membership. As they acquire hours, the members rise to different brackets which make them eligible for holding major offices, directing plays, and eventually qualifying for Thespians.

Thespians

President ..... Fred Teutenberg
 Vice-President ..... Don Dempsey
 Sponsor ..... Mr. Gilmore

Thespians is an honorary society that recognizes the students who have done outstanding work in the field of dramatics. To qualify for membership a student must spend one hundred hours in dramatics activities. Thirty of these hours must be earned for work behind scenes. Average grades and a genuine interest in dramatics are also required.

After the major productions which were "Nothing But the Truth," "Antigone," and "Kind Lady," an initiation was held for new members. The Thespians have always done a superior job in providing the students and community with an excellent variety of plays and are an important part of Webster's activities.

Nothing But the Truth, a farce by James Montgomery, deals with the truth, that intangible subject people often talk about and often try to avoid. In the play Bob Bennett makes a $10,000 bet with his future father-in-law E. M. Ralston that he can tell the absolute truth for twenty-four hours. He discovers that it can be dangerous to always tell nothing but the truth.

Van Dusen and Dick Donnelly, the other two conspirators against Bob Bennett, invite two chorus girls to visit Ralston's office. When Mrs. Ralston hears of this, the insuing situation provides a rather uncomfortable home life for E. M. until the bet is over.

Time Out For Ginger concerns Virginia "Ginger" Carrol, a fourteen year old girl who feels that her sex is being underrated and oppressed; specifically she wants to be on the varsity football team. The whole uproar develops when Ginger's father makes a speech expounding the equality of boys and girls and stating that "Everybody should be allowed to do what he wants to do." The students take Mr. Carrol seriously and disobey the orders of the faculty; the school principal, Bob Wilson, tries unsuccessfully to persuade him to retract his statement. His boss at the bank informs him that his job is in jeopardy. Ginger's sisters find themselves ridiculed by some of the students because of Ginger's football playing (she made the second string), and it also leads to strained relations between her and her boyfriend, Tommy. However with the end of the football season, things again right themselves.

Antigone, a tragedy by Jean Anouilh, is a symbolic play and therefore lends itself to imaginative settings, and a non-representational set consisting of a series of platforms, steps, and pylons was used.

Antigone is revolting against Creon's godless edicts. As it is a tragedy, Antigone is physically defeated; however, Creon is the one who really loses for those nearest him are dead and the people of Thebes now hate him. A unique feature of Antigone was the Chorus who at the start of the play told the audience exactly what was going to happen—this is a carry over from the ancient Greek singing chorus.

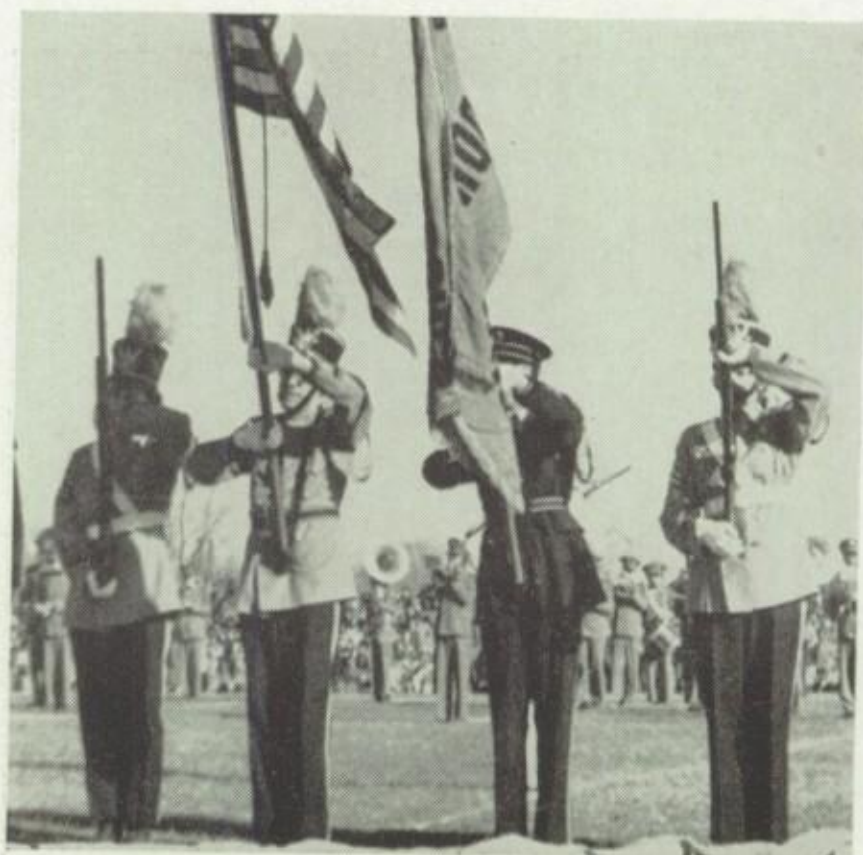

The Statesman Show Band, composed of ninety members, worked under the direction of Mr. Henry Lemcke. The band was a familiar sight at the home football games and helped to promote the excitement and spirit of both the team and the spectators.

Hours of hard work were behind the outstanding performances they gave at the games. For each program the band had to learn at least six new marching formations, as well as new music. As leader of the torchlight parade, the band also contributed to the excitement of the Pep Rally.

Besides its functional activities, the band enjoyed social activities such as the annual picnic in the spring and the Frosty Fantasy Dance in December.

The goal of all instrumentalists at Webster High is to become a member of the Symphonic Band, in which approximately ninety students worked under the direction of Mr. Henry Lemcke.

Among the activities of the band were the Spring Music Festival in April, the thirty-fifth annual Spring Concert in May, and the third annual Pops Concert.

From serious music, however, the band turned to music of a lighter nature; and together with the Cheerleaders, they gave the Frosty Fantasy dance which they hope to make an annual affair.

Dance Band

Working under the direction of Mr. Walter Lathen, a professional musician, the Webster Groves Dance Band completed its first full year.

The band not only played well-known popular compositions, but also worked on original Count Basie arrangements, which Mr. Lathen was able to secure. They also participated in the kick-off assemblies and talent assemblies throughout the year. Highlighting the year's activities was the band's performance at the Mid-America Jubilee last summer.

As a result of their efforts, the members felt that they had gained a truer appreciation of good music.

 Secretary-Treasurer .....Carol Miller

The Concert Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Adrian Boyer, was very active this year. The studying and playing of the works of both old and contemporary masters gave the students an opportunity to become acquainted with many different types of music.

Several members participated in the All-County Orchestra, which consisted of the outstanding instrumentalists from the high schools of St. Louis County. The annual Spring Concert and the Spring Music Festival, in which graduating seniors were featured as soloists, were among the other activities of the year. In December the orchestra gave a concert followed by an open house in the band room for their parents.

As always, the Concert Orchestra carried on the tradition of bringing fine orchestral accomplishment to Webster.

The Junior Band, which had a membership of approximately ninety junior school students, was under the direction of Mr. Henry Lemcke. The enthusiastic band members studied such fundamentals as tone quality, phrasing, technique, rhythm, and elementary theory.

The Junior Band gave its own Spring Concert and participated in the annual Spring Music Festival.

Among the social activities were a basketball tournament, organized by the boys, and the annual band picnic held in the spring. Both of these events were a success and a very enjoyable part of the band's activities.

A Cappella Choir started off with its usual enthusiasm, by having an informal party at which the members gave impromptu skits suggesting song titles. Throughout the year the choir entertained P.T.A. groups, service clubs, and other organizations, with their wide variety of songs. Before the Christmas holidays A Cappella presented their traditional Vesper Services, alum sing and the fun assembly.

In the spring the members culminated a year of hard work and much fun by presenting a musical program for the students and community.

The members of Beginning Choir began the year enthusiastically by an evening get-together. The Choir had been divided into groups which prepared skits for that night and since most of them were on the humorous side, talented comedians were soon discovered. After the skits, refreshments were served while the group sat in a circle and sang. The evening helped everyone become better acquainted and learn the Choir's plans for the year.

Probably the most memorable experience for Beginning Choir was taking part in Vespers. It was the first time for most of the members to participate in the beautiful service that they, as an audience, had loved for several years before.

The monthly circulation of the Latinus Rumor reached five-hundred copies for the first time in its history and exchanges were made with twenty-two Latin papers in the United States. The first issue of the paper was concerned particularly with the National J. C. L. Convention held at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Because the state Latin paper had been discontinued, Miss Farmer and her staff provided each school in state with a Latinus Rumor. More stress on sophomore participation in editing the paper was emphasized than in previous years, and a typical Latinus Rumor included jokes, news from "alums," and articles on Roman traditions.

This year the second, third, and fourth year French students developed a new way of organizing Le Cercle Francais. Each class formed its own club and elected its own officers. Meetings were held on the first Monday of each month, during class hours. At these meetings the students participated in French games, listened to records, read French stories and had refreshments. Occasionally these smaller clubs met together under officers elected from the third and fourth year classes for films and talks on France by guest speakers in an effort to become better acquainted with the culture of the French people.

Cheerleaders

This year's cheerleaders had the spirit and co-operation that very few squads before them had. Led by their competent captain, Carolyn Beall, and with the assistance of their sponsor, Mrs. Hiller, they began learning and perfecting their fifty-six cheers during the summer. Through the year they introduced four new cheers: With a "T," B-E-A-T, The Team is in a Huddle, and Fight to Win, all of which have become very popular. In order to improve the strength and solidarity of Webster's cheering section the cheerleading squad organized a pep club, which for several years had been absent from the Webster sports scene. The pep club gave the cheerleaders a core of strength in the middle of the stands, which has been greatly needed.

For this group of cheerleaders and for Webster's spirit, it was a year of work, co-operation, and progress.

Junior-Senior Pep Club

Basketball, football, and pep assemblies were sparked by the enthusiastic cheering of the 1956-57 Pep Club. Operating under a new plan of limited membership and under the sponsorship of Mrs. J. Hiller, the club chose its members from those who sought membership by petitions. The purpose of the club was to create school spirit by having an organized cheering section and to present demonstrations to interest other schools at games.

The club, composed of fifty-six junior and senior girls, introduced a card and white shirt section at games, and colored shakers and gloves were used in presenting action cheers. Other club activities included a cookie sale, a booth in the Dance Carnival, and a progressive dinner in February.

The Sophomore Pep Club was organized to support the "B" football and basketball teams. Cheerleaders elected by the grade, were: Dot Beaman, Babs Branch, Pat Edele, Barb Hays, Linda McFarland, Kathy Middleton, Marge Thorpe, and Anne Werthmueller.

At the Dance Carnival in February the Pep Club sponsored the turtle race. This provided a means of making money and having fun.

President ..... Linda Henry
 Vice-President ..... Irene Cariffe
 Sponsor ..... Mrs. Frederiksen

The Freshman Pep Club, composed of both boys and girls, provided fine support for the "C" football and basketball teams. For games away from home a bus was chartered for the club members.

Out of the many enthusiastic girls who tried out for freshman cheerleader the following girls were elected: Mary Beaman, Judy Foster, Mary Ann Hanly, Marian Jun, Carol Keiser, Linda Latta, Carole Novak and Karen Rodemick.

The Pep Club started their activities with a hayride and ended with a lawn party at one of the member's homes.

The Senior Red Cross was very active this year. The main project was the large gift chest which the organization filled and sent overseas. Among the many other charitable projects which this club sponsored was work at the Bloodmobile and at the Red Cross Toy Shop. They also gave a Halloween party for the children at the Nellie Salmon Day Nursery, and a Christmas party at the Bethesda Home.

Senior Red Cross

These projects gave the members a feeling of personal satisfaction which can be obtained only by helping others.

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross, under the sponsorship of Miss Grace, was composed of a representative and an alternate from each home room in the junior school. The purpose of the club was to serve the community, to take part in international projects, and to teach the students to recognize and appreciate the needs of others. The Junior Red Cross held its meetings once a month in the junior library.

In October the annual membership drive was held giving every junior school student an opportunity to become a member. The club then filled boxes to be sent over seas and collected clothing for Hungarian Relief.

Mrs. Gearin

One of the most essential facets of a good high school is the maintenance of adequate facilities for all students. The Student Librarians achieved this goal by spending many hours learning library skills and working with books during their study halls, free periods, and before and after school. Because of their help, Miss Bynum and Mrs. Gearin had more time to give individual help to the students.

Meetings were held once a week after school at which problems of the library were discussed. In December, Miss Bynum showed her movies of Scotland at the assistants' annual Christmas party.

Miss Grace, Bragg, Jackson, Schrader, Schaeffer, Mass, Jones, Harrol, Stark, Riedel, Williams, Hampton, Davis, Harrington, Collins, Swaniger, Semsrott, Lowe, Elston, Wilkinson, Nolte, Boggess, Murray, Warden, Toft, Reynolds, Coombs, Thomas, Townsend, Woods, Hauschild, B. Hilby, Stirrat, L. Hilby, Cooper.

From each class of junior school students that met in the library, four assistants were chosen to serve as librarians, while other volunteers worked after school and at lunch time. These assistants helped to check books and to prepare new copies for the library. The class assistants were changed after each six weeks period so that more students had an opportunity to help their class.

The purpose of the Junior Library Assistants was not only to help Miss Grace, their sponsor, with jobs in the library, but to train the members for future library work. The club also furthered the student's interest in reading by giving them the opportunity to handle and work with the books.

Audio-Visual Operators

President .....John Grindon
 Vice-President .....Terry Brown
 Sponsor .....Mr. Madouras

The Audio-Visual Operators are an organization that performs many services and provides the students with a different and interesting way of learning. Upon the request of teachers, A. V. O. members supply educational film strips, movies and records for the various classes. The A. V. O. boys also operate the amplifiers at all assemblies, football games and school dances.

Because the club needed money for necessary equipment, the members showed the movie, "Young at Heart," at an after-school performance and had a booth at the Dance Carnival.

Cooperative Occupational Education

The cooperative plan of education is a progressive system through which a student can receive occupational training under working conditions. Practical experience is one of the most demanded qualifications for work and in this program it is acquired. The student also receives a general as well as a vocational education, and also the opportunity to develop his talents and interests to their fullest extent.

To become eligible for this vocational training the student must be at least sixteen years old and be selected on the basis of his interest and qualifications for the occupation he chooses.

The student takes three classes along with one class hour of COE with Mr. Trotter, the teacher and sponsor. This schedule permits him to leave school at noon for his job.

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to give experience and information that is not ordinarily gained in the classroom to students who are interested in commercial work. The girls achieved their purpose by having men and women from various business organizations speak at their meetings and by taking a field trip to one of the leading business firms in St. Louis.

The group also had many social activities. Among these were a trip on the Admiral, a "come-as-you-are breakfast," and Christmas caroling at the City Hospital. The highlight of the year's activities was the annual banquet in the spring.

A familiar sight during every sixth hour class is a girl returning attendance cards. This is only one of the jobs of the busy office assistants. Some of their other duties include filing cards for counselors, picking up green and pink slips from each classroom, and showing new students around the building.

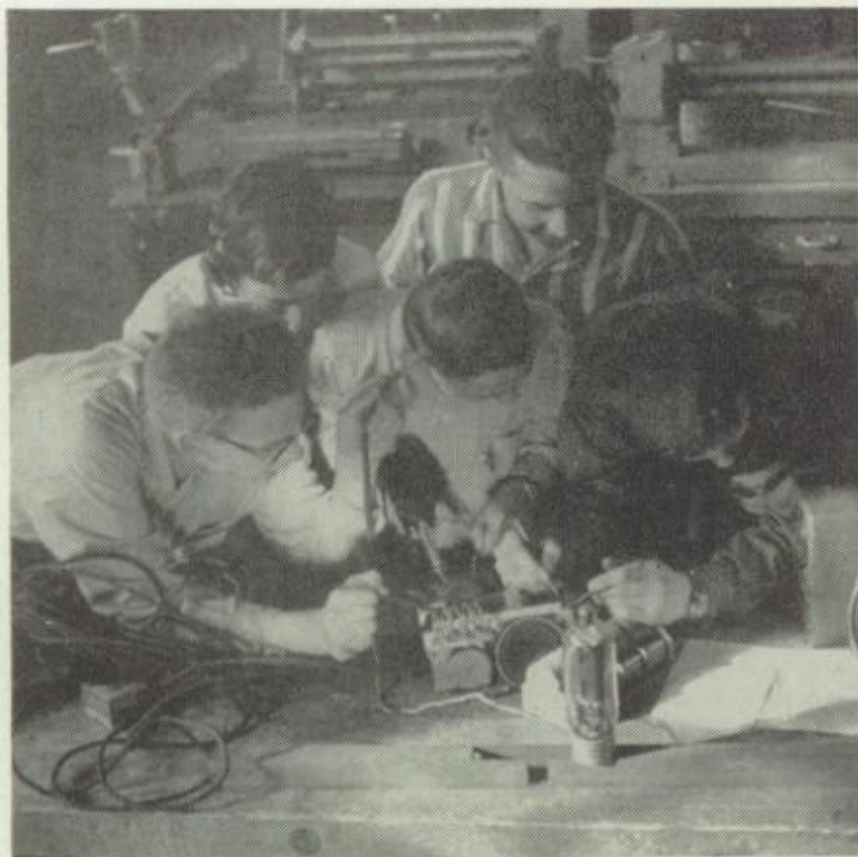

There are usually two assistants in the office every hour, although sometimes more are needed during the sixth hour rush. The most important requirement of an office assistant is that she be a responsible person, but she must also have a daily study hall and average grades.

The Radio Club took many field trips during the year. Among the places which they visited were the radio stations of KXOK and KFYO. Practical knowledge was gained from the visit to the Maplewood Telephone Company, the home of an amateur radio station. This experience gave the members more information concerning their own radio station maintained in the metal shop here at Webster High. To raise money for their activity the Radio Club sponsored a booth at the Dance Carnival.

The Bible Club was a new activity at Webster this year. This club is affiliated with the Youth For Christ Organization, which is an international club for young people. Through the Y. F. C., the Bible Club was able to secure outstanding speakers for their meetings and was also able to attend rallies which were given on Saturday evenings. The main event of the year was a nation-wide Bible quiz, in which five members of the Club participated.

This year Hi-Y 57A was saddened by the death of their president, Wally Gibbs. To the club Wally was a friend and a leader. It was through his many efforts that the group was welded together by strong friendship and a program of balanced activity, contributing much time and effort to all phases of school life.

In its early years the club set a pattern that was to continue by winning the Metropolitan Saint Louis YMCA Basketball Tournament, participating in World Service, sending a representative to Youth in Government, and joining in the fellowship which is so outstanding in "Y" programs. In the recent year two of the club's main projects were publishing the Buzz Book and co-sponsoring the Friendship Dance.

Vice-President ..... Bill Enoch
Secretary ..... Bill Snyder

Hi Y 57B, working "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character," gave many hours of service during the last four years to promote Y activities. Helping with the building fund, contributing to World Service, working on the Buzz Book, and co-sponsoring the Friendship Dance, were among their many charity projects. They didn't limit their fellowship to work, however; they also participated actively in sports. As evidence of this they brought home third place from the Metropolitan Y.M.C.A. Basketball Tournament. The club maintained a balance in programs from which they received rewarding experiences matched by few other high school groups.

Working on committees with Hi-Y members, the Tri-Hi-Y spent many hours during the first few months of the year preparing the Buzz Book. That project completed, the club had an installation for new officers and in December helped to sell Christmas cards for a Webster firm.

At their meetings on Tuesday afternoon or evening, the girls discussed and later carried through a plan for visiting the children's ward of City Hospital on alternate Saturdays. The club was sponsored by Mrs. H. Stein.

The Date Slate was the first project of the year for Tri-Hi-Y 57B under the sponsorship of Mrs. G. Sameulson. At their Wednesday afternoon meetings the club worked on many charity projects for hospitals, homes, and Hungarian Relief. Among their other projects was a dinner held for the parents of club members and a booth in the Dance Carnival during February.

The Tri-Hi-Y sent two of its members as representatives to the Youth and Government program.

The Junior class had two Hi-Y clubs which met once a week at the Y. Hi-Y 58A was active in World Service and several other projects of this kind, while Hi-Y 58B began the year with a hayride and picnic. As a service to the school and as a fund raising project the clubs sold Webster pennants for the Turkey Day game. Their social activities consisted of a Christmas banquet, a February dance, a March hayride, and to complete a very good year they mixed work, play, and study on a retreat at Trout Lodge in May.

Combining service and social activities, the Tri-Hi-Y 58A sponsored by Miss Helen Wuellner had a very successful year. For their service projects part of the group spent one entire day working at the Caroline Mission in St. Louis and later the club gave parties at the City Hospital and the Veterans Hospital. Another enjoyable project was their work at the U. S. O.

The club supplemented its treasury with a rummage sale at the North Webster Fire Station and a bake sale late in the year. Meetings were held on Wednesday afternoons at five-thirty and the girls enjoyed bringing pot luck supper to their meetings on special occasions.

Hi-Y 59A worked hard this past year with the unity and spirit of brotherhood that is exemplary of high school "Y" work. They began the year helping the community with the bond issue, and to further the work of other organizations in the community and the world they earned money selling small novelty Christmas candles and Christmas calendars.

A banquet was the high-light of the year and one of the many components of a well-rounded program of activity.

The club consisted of twenty sophomore boys who met once a week at the "Y". These weekly meetings provided responsibility, opportunity for learning, and hours of fun with fellow students while fostering Christian ideals.

Among the specific activities of the group were World Service, Youth in Government, the model legislature, and participation in the monthly morning meditations sponsored by the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Youth Council. They were fortunate in having Dan Schmeichen as their enthusiastic sponsor.

After organization and election of officers in the fall, Tri-Hi-Y 59A started the year rolling with a hayride. Later the officers attended a training conference at Trout Lodge and representatives were sent to the Youth In Government program. In the field of charity the girls helped a needy family in St. Louis, contributed to World Service, and in February made Valentines for the Childrens Hospital.

On their social calendar was a tea, giving the mothers an opportunity to become acquainted with the girls and their program, a booth in the Dance Carnival, and a pot luck dinner. The club was sponsored by Mrs. E. Albin.

The 1956 season for the hard working grid-iron squad was a difficult up hill battle, practicing and fighting most of the season in scorching weather for a .500 record. In his fifteenth year as Webster's head football coach, Mr. Raymond Moss, along with Mr. Leonard Bryant, worked with a great group of boys to turn out one of Webster's best teams, despite what the record might depict.

The seasons opener found Webster fumbling its way to a hard fought loss at the hands of the Roosevelt "Roughriders," 14-6. The second contest provided better results for the Statesmen as they won in the last seconds, over Southwest, 25-20. Trecking into the foothills the Statesmen were outclassed by the new Parkview High School of Springfield in their second loss 27-0. The Comets of Ferguson were defeated next by one touchdown, 14-7. The team fought hard against Normandy, outrushing the Vikings but not outscoring them in a 7-7 tie. The sixth game was played in a steady rain before a surprising number of loyal Websterites, only to lose a heartbreaker in the last minute as Ritenour literally slipped by Webster, 13-7. Webster romped over Maplewood to mar the opposition's homecoming in a 19-7 victory. The Statesmen's fine defense lacked the help of the offense as they lost to the Suburban league champs from U. City, 7-0. With spirits high the Webster squad beat Kirkwood in the 49 year old Turkey Day rivalry by a score of 7-0, thus grabbing the coveted Frisco Bell and returning the Little Brown Jug to the Pioneers.

The Webster team finished their nine game schedule with a 4-4-1 record in an evenly matched league. They appropriately elected a lineman and a back as co-captains—Seniors Jean Patterson and Dave Hicks.

The 1956-57 varsity basketball team was a very outstanding one. The squad consisted of fifteen excellent players including several veterans, a handful of 'B' team graduates, and a gift from the lead belt town of DeSoto; it was from these boys that Mr. Yates was able to pick the best offensive team he has ever had. This team, offensively, surpassed even the 1952-53 team that was built around Jim Krebs, an All-American senior at SMU this past season.

The season began with a win over Hancock; but during the course of the game, Mike Ramming broke his wrist. This was a foreshadowing of events to come. As the season progressed, so did the injuries and illnesses. The team went on to win a total of twenty-one games against four upsets. The Yatesmen won the Normandy Christmas Tournament and the Suburban League title. Trying to win the Webster Groves Suburban League Tournament for the fifth consecutive time, Webster was upset by one point at the hands of Kirkwood. As the team entered the Webster Groves State Regional Tournament at the close of the season, Bob Barker was unable to see action, but Eureka was an easy victory. Against Sullivan Webster was a little shaky and they toppled to a loss. In the final game the boys hit their stride in a 75-49 win over Affton. They were at their peak, but deprived of a State Tournament birth.

During the season the team had six individuals who scored twenty points in at least one game. The team elected two of these as their co-captains, Lanny Larason and Bob Barker, at the unfortunate conclusion of a very successful year.

Sophomore Football

Webster's sophomore football team, composed of well seasoned players from both Hixson and Webster "C" teams, compiled a commendable 5-1 record giving Coach Froebel Gaines a total of 115 wins and 15 losses, while running off the single wing, a remarkable record. Having given two outstanding players to the varsity squad the team still managed to outclass their opponents.

The opener was against Ferguson with Webster coming out on top, 31-7. Webster met a rougher Normandy squad next, but out-scored the sophomore Vikings, 6-0; however, the following week they suffered their only loss of the season to Ritenour, 6-14. The Leafs from nearby Maplewood were trampled even more than their varsity brothers in a 40-0 victory for the Statesmen. Webster next met Kirkwood and ran circles around the Pioneers, 40-6. In the final game of the season the Gainesmen walked past the U. City Indians by a score of 26-6.

The Webster C team coached by Mr. Theodore, won four games and lost only two. Suffering from a split in personnel with the Hixson Junior High, the squad was still able to nip four strong league opponents.

Playing their first year of organized football didn't seem to pose much of a problem for these boys. They worked hard from the beginning learning the plays and fundamentals of football.

They opened their season against the Comets of Ferguson with a 2-0 win on a safety. Having gained momentum they ran over Brentwood with five touchdowns, 33-0. The frosh outscored a usual good Ritenour squad by one touchdown, 13-6, and turned Maplewood away in a close, 6-0 victory. The Kirkwood Pioneers won, 18-0 and the U. City Indians scalped the Statesmen by a score of 19-6.

Norman Schwesig, the leading scorer, was elected captain.

Sophomore Basketball

The Webster "B" Basketball team came through in fine style as has been the tradition for the sophomore squads during the past years. Under the leadership of a new helmsman, Coach Stepro, the boys worked diligently combining the experience gained on last year's "C" teams. They opened their season and played most of their games on the same evening that the varsity did. They were not quite successful in obtaining a perfect season; however, they did compile a record of thirteen wins with only one loss. The squad found a smooth road in their victories by winning each game by an average of sixteen points. From the results of this year's "B" team, Webster should look forward to a top notch varsity team again next year.

The Webster freshmen basketball team had a fine season with a fine coach, Mr. Schuchardt, who was new this year on the Webster scene. Immediately after the football season the "C" basketball squad began developing plays and team work. They molded a group of boys who played earnestly to win but not at the expense of fair play and clean sportsmanship. The season ended with a very commendable nine and four record that included taking first place in the white division of the Suburban League Tournament. The Tournament consisted of two divisions with the teams for each division chosen at random from the Suburban League. Webster won the final game by one point against Kirkwood.

Wrestling

The 1957 wrestling season was a hard one as the squad met outstanding competition in the Suburban League. The grapplers managed, however, to win as many dual matches as they lost in compiling their creditable 7-7 record. Coach Bryant encouraged the boys with forceful determination and hard practice. The team worked out every day, learning and practicing to stay in good condition. It was through the team's strenuous rib breaking work that they brought home five places from the State Tournament. John James and Mickey Stewart captured the highly prized first place trophies while Jim Bryan, Paul Simmons, and Warren Townsend managed to take fourth places in their weight divisions.

It is interesting to note that Mickey Stewart was unbeaten in two years of Missouri competition during which he won two state titles.

Baseball

The 1956 baseball team compiled an 8-3 league record to take third place in the Suburban League. The squad had a total of eleven wins and eight losses for the season. Veteran Dick Hopkins was elected captain.

One of the highlights of the season occurred in the sixth league contest against Kirkwood, April 24. Jerry Wolff, Roberts' Trophy winner, was on the mound. Jerry faced only twenty-two men, one short of a perfect game. He struck out fifteen, and the only man to reach base got there on a throwing error. Jerry continued his fine play at the plate, having five hits in five times at bat, including two homeruns. He totaled ten "runs batted in" and scored four runs himself, as Webster downed Kirkwood, 17-0. This display of baseball was so spectacular that it was carried by the Associated Press and clippings were seen in Berlin, Germany.

Tennis

The tennis team this year, as in past years, has had an increased number of well grounded players showing an active interest. Through this interest Coach Eric Gass has been able to harvest a good, young team which captured the Missouri High School Doubles Championship in the early fall.

Spring practice began early in the cold of March. Some of the practice suits included Army Parkas, gloves, sweat pants, and sweaters in order to keep out the cold. The team practiced three days a week during March and by the opening match in late April they were in good form. The team did very well in the Suburban League and they are looking forward to an even more profitable year ahead.

The Webster Golf team, which for five years had been unbeatable, suffered five losses this year. Since May 1950, in 74 dual matches Mr. Yates and his teams were unbeaten. Starting this season the golfers walked over their first two league opponents, John Burroughs and Kirkwood; however, while shooting for number 77, U. City managed to slide by with a four stroke margin to mar Webster's record. During the remainder of the 1956 campaign the Yatesmen added five wins and four losses for a very good 7-5 record. The league competition was at times unsurmountable this year as Clayton carried home the Suburban League title and Saint Louis University High earned the district championship.

Hockey

Participation in intramural and class hockey was handled differently this year. Those interested in being on a class team signed up for "coaching;" but because of the number of enthusiasts, several practice games were played to separate those for class teams and those for intramural sports. Several "cuts" were made until only the number of the team itself remained. Coaching was held on Tuesday and Thursday of each week, providing ample opportunity to increase personal skills and team play. This year the girls used "Jackie Schapp" shinguards, designed by a former physical education teacher from Webster. Among the schools the Varsity, Senior, Junior, and Sophomore teams played, Maplewood and University City Highs fielded the strongest teams.

As in years past, basketball was a very popular sport at Webster. This game which demands a great deal of stamina, precision, and alertness, was a challenge to over two hundred girls. The group was divided into two sections: coaching and intramurals. To be in coaching a girl had to pass a test of basketball skills. The intramural group was divided into approximately twenty teams, and the girls held a tournament among themselves.

From coaching and intramurals, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class teams were chosen. These teams played games with class teams from several county high schools and did very well. The varsity team was chosen from the members of these three class teams. The climax of the season was the annual Sports Day, which was held at Webster in February.

Volleyball

Volleyball is a favorite sport of all girls because it requires very few special skills. Therefore, many sophomore, junior, and senior girls participated in intramural volleyball held after school during February and March. The class teams were chosen from the intramural groups and played games against other country schools.

Girls who had shown outstanding ability on the class teams were selected to play on the varsity team, which practiced several times a week. Every year Webster has had an unusually good volleyball team and last year's was no exception. Although they lost to Bayless by a few points, they rallied to defeat Clayton and Maplewood by a wide margin. Fine sportsmanship and well-developed plays were shown by the class and varsity teams.

The softball season offered a final opportunity to the girls to show their sports ability and be on a class team. Many participated in the intramurals held after school. Not only the players were important, but also the umpires and scorers who were needed to officiate the games. These officials were chosen from a list of girls who volunteered at the first of the season.

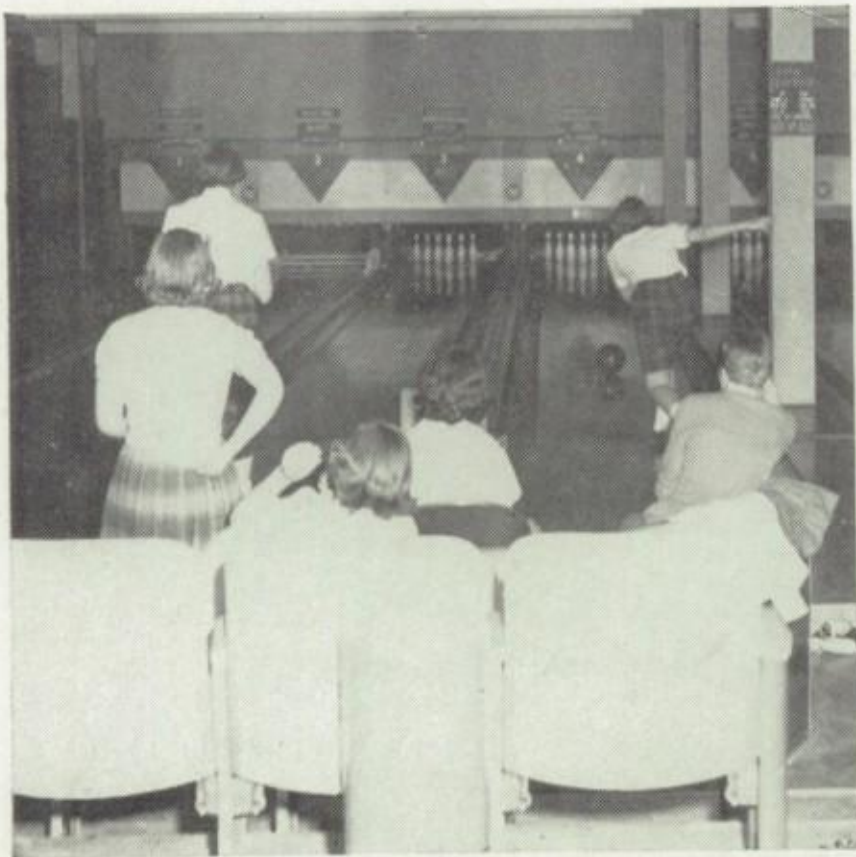

Players who had shown outstanding ability during intramurals were given a chance to be on class teams, which competed against other county high schools. The varsity team was composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors who had done exceptionally well on a class team. Throughout the season the class and varsity teams excelled not only in good playing but also in good sportsmanship.

Bowling

Once again the Bowling Club enjoyed a very successful year. Only G.A.A. members were eligible to take part in this sport, and approximately one hundred and fifteen girls signed up to participate in the tournaments. These girls were then divided into twenty-three teams of five members each.

The teams bowled at the alleys of their choice and turned in their scores to Miss Daniel, who was the sponsor of the group. Each round of the tournament was bowled at a different time. The teams had the privilege of bowling several games and then turning in the best score.

The winner of the tournament was scheduled for games with several other schools. As in past years, Webster's team did quite well.

The Modern Dance Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Cissy Perry, was divided into intermediate and advanced sections. The intermediate club met in the senior girls gym on Thursday afternoons while the advanced group, composed of those girls who had been in the club the previous year, held its meetings on Wednesdays.

For the first half of the year the modern dance club meetings consisted of numerous exercises which provided limberness, agility, and gracefulness. Short dance compositions were also presented before the class by small groups.

After Christmas the club began preparing and practicing dances for their approaching program. With the assistance of Mrs. Perry, the club planned a variety of dances to semi-classical, calypso, and popular records which were presented in May. The program was only the second of its kind to be held at Webster.

Officials

The officials are a group who are vital in the sports program of girls at Webster. Those interested in officiating for a certain sport are given the opportunity to so indicate at the start of the season. To qualify a girl has to be able to spare several afternoons a week for going to the games. Most important, she must be a responsible person.

For each of the four sports, hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball, there is a team manager of every class and varsity team. Other jobs are linesman, scorers, timers, referees, and umpires. The officials earn points which they well deserve for giving up much time and expending much energy.

A familiar and welcome sight at football games last year was the refreshment truck. Before each home game, ten girls who were members of the G.A.A., volunteered to work making sno-cones and hot dogs, and pouring soda. The concessionaires had fun while working and also helped provide a means of increasing the treasury of the Girls' Athletic Association.

For thirty-nine years the Girls' Athletic Association has encouraged girls in the senior school to participate in sports. The purpose of the organization is to further the standards of good sportsmanship and fair play among the girls taking part in the sports at Webster. In addition to the usual sports of hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball, two bowling tournaments were held. The girls also had the opportunity to increase their golf skills.

When any girl had earned one hundred points in intramural sports, she was eligible for membership in G.A.A. A second initiation was held in the spring for those who had not earned the necessary points for the first initiation. To retain her membership, each girl had to earn fifty points a semester, pay dues, and attend all G.A.A. meetings.

The work of the organization was not all in sports, however. In the fall a "Dad's Night" was held where the fathers recaptured their youth by square-dancing and running relay races with their daughters. In the spring G.A.A. sponsored the Kampus King Dance. Four boys, chosen by the Senior members of the organization, posed as Jacks for the evening; and Barbara Mester crowned the fifth, Kampus King.

Dear Susan,
There is so much room in your echo in which to sign. A "Gift" from Cuquet's so I guess I can say what I want to in a small place. I regret that I haven't seen as much of you this year because I like you a lot. But IS ALWAYS "SOMETHING SPECIAL" I seemed as though we went separate ways. I can never forget all we have done together in Delta Gamma. And of course the drive in move two summers ago. That was the best thing Cuquet's that could have happened to us. I wonder if I would know as much as I do now if I hadn't met Bill J. And now there's another Bill in my life. After you and John, and Bill and I are married we have to plan to get together
I guess we could meet somewhere on the West coast. We've really had our share of arguments but we never stay mad too long. I guess you're just the kind of person everybody loves, well at least I do. Susan, I'll never forget you and I sincerely hope our friendship continues even though you have moved to Washington (Next Page)

Sue - (Harry)
 years from now you'll be looking thru this great book and you'll see this. You'll just say what a fr---!! Well, just the same you are in my mind a really great gal + a wonderful person.
 I'll always. Rest of luck in whatever you do. How a

Sue -
 lots and lots of luck to a great girl in your coming years of college. I'm really sorry I didn't get to know you better this year.
 and I'm also sorry you're moving.
 Have fun Bill Shaw

Sue (Hairy) Bear -

It sure has been fun knowing you during the last few years (really just this year) It's a shame you have to move aight a way, but mark my words someday I will come and see you (I hope)
 Now for some real original word - Lots of luck in all the years ahead to a real swell gal -

Dear Miss Harold Bear,

Best of luck always to a swell gal. (God what an original statement!) But this time I really mean it. In my book (my year book that is) you are my favorite Sr. gal. It's been great and is great knowing thru these many years. I really hate to see you go all the long way out to Washington, but Ha, Sara, Sara (that's Spanish for "Ha, Ha, I'm really glad to see you go"). Seriously, Hairy, It's been great. Hope I can come out this summer and, if I can't make it, maybe I'll see you again sometime. Best Wishes at Washington V. (that's where I'm going too, but I don't think we'll see much of each other) and in all the years to come.
